MINOR VARIANCE APPLICATION PROCESS

An application for a Minor Variance generally requires approximately two (2) to four (4) months to process. This procedure generally encompasses the following steps:

1. The application is reviewed by planning staff to ensure all prescribed information and the required fee has been provided. Within thirty (30) days of the receipt of an application, the applicant will be notified in writing, whether the application is considered “complete”.
2. Following the circulation period, a staff report containing a recommendation and any conditions of approval, if required, will be formulated.
3. At the public meeting, opportunity is afforded to the applicant and any other interested parties to make verbal and/or written submissions concerning the Minor Variance application. The Township Committee of Adjustment may choose to approve, refuse or defer the application.
4. If approved, a notice of passing of the decision is given to property owners and various public agencies and there is a 20 day appeal period commencing the day after this further notice is given in which an appeal may be made to the Ontario Municipal Board. Should no appeal be lodged, the minor variance is final and binding.
